CHÂTEAU FAUGÈRES (GRAND CRU CLASSÉ DE SAINT-ÉMILION)

Château Faugères is an unfinished story written with passion, dedication and an insistence on quality – the hallmarks of its owner Silvio Denz. Its winery, veritable cathedral of wine which overlooks the vineyard, is today a landmark in Saint-Émilion.

Soil: Limestone plateau (asteria limestone subsoil); limestone and clay slope (limestone soil on clay-limestone molasse)

Area: 37 hectares

Varietals: 85% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon

Vinegrowing: Natural sustainable viticulture (ISO 14001 in 2009), double guyot pruning, cultivation of soil, debudding, thinning by hand, manual harvesting using trays and optical sorting.

Winemaking: Vats filled by gravity, cold prefermentary maceration, temperature-controlled wooden conical vats, slow vatting over a period of three weeks.

Aging: 14 months in one wine barrels and two wines barrels, french oak, no fining

Tasting notes:

The purple color of the « Cuvée privée du Château Faugères 2014 » unveils beautiful garnet red hints. The nose offers a complex bouquet of graphite, blackcurrant, raspberry and cherry notes. This Saint-Émilion Grand Cru develops a delicious, dense and fresh attack. This is a wine with a suave character and compact, powerful, and slightly granulous tannins.
